THE POLITICS OF PROTECTION: LESSONS FROM WOMEN HUMAN RIGHTS DEFENDERS

TUESDAY MARCH 12, 2019
4:30-6PM
4 WEST 43RD ST, AQUA ROOM

The Politics of Protection will explore how shifting power dynamics and trends -- including rising authoritarianism and extractivism -- fuel violence against WHRDs and test the limits of technical and individual security measures. Speakers will share their experiences and recommendations for addressing violence against WHRDs, including collective protection and self-defense approaches, and reflect on lessons learned, particularly in Mesoamerica and Southern Africa.

PANELISTS:

- Marusia López Cruz, JASS (Just Associates)
- Lydia Alpizar, Mesoamerican Women Human Rights Defenders Initiative
- Anne-Marie Goetz, Center for Global Affairs at New York University
- Shereen Essof, JASS (Just Associates)

MODERATOR:

Lisa VeneKlasen,
